

Hearthside Comfort

Connecticut-based designers Amy Andrews, Catherine Avery and Connie Beale set a cozy hearthside scene.

NEW ENGLAND HOME'S
CONNECTICUT WINTER 2011

CATHERINE AVERY

Catherine Avery partners with her clients to create relaxed, yet elegant, family-friendly interiors. In her view, great interior design must reflect the style and taste of the client, evoking a warm and welcoming response from all who enter. AVERY DESIGN INTERIORS, WESTPORT, (203) 273-0898, WWW.AVERYDESIGNINTERIORS.COM

Chair No. Three Ninety Five by The New Traditionalists "The balance of the feminine arms with the masculine leather detailing gives this chair family appeal. A pair of these chairs, which are manufactured in Connecticut, would be perfect for relaxing by the fireplace." THROUGH AVERY DESIGN INTERIORS

Midcentury Fireplace Tools from Greg Nanamura "I love the sleek lines of these brass fireplace tools. The thick green glass base is a unique and unusual touch." THROUGH AVERY DESIGN INTERIORS

Sunburst Wall Sculpture "This 1960s piece adds that special touch of elegance above the fireplace. With its variegated shades of metal, it's a modern take on a classic design." IRWIN FELD DESIGN, STAMFORD, (203) 588-0567

Houndstooth Fringe Throw by A Soft Idea "Made locally, this oversized plush throw is available in five different colors. In easy-to-clean 100 percent cotton, it's perfect for the kids to cozy up by the fireplace with hot chocolate on a winter evening." FIG LINENS, WESTPORT, (203) 227-8669